out you were behind the disappearance of the pet? We can frame it as a pet suicide. This has an additional fee, but can save you from unwanted confrontations from your loved ones. Worried that your wife will see the charge on your credit card bill? Problem solved!

"Veterinarian" Services.

INT. INSIDE CUSTOMERS HOME

Testimonial from a customer who hired the service.

JOHN

The Animal Hitman service was great. My dog was one of the happy go lucky kind, wanting me to pet him every single day, and I had to take him out for 2 walks every day!! Can you believe it. Yukkk.

(BEAT)

Their cover up service is really great. They made it seem like the dog was unhappy with his life and wanted out. With their breakthrough animal behavior modeling, they managed to make the dog seem sad, that he didn't want attention all the time, and trained him to jump out of our second floor window. It was perfect, our whole family thought he was suicidal having attempted to jump to his death several times before the incident.

My wife really went ape shit after seeing that, and left with the kids to stay with her parents . But hey, at least my kids never found out.
